Purim Mayhem

Join us for a Purim Shpiel

Singing, Dancing, and a Whole Lot of Hamentaschen

March 07, 2009

There were blintzes and babke, kneidlach and kugel, kreplach and knishes, kuchem-buchem, brisket and berches, mandeltorte and lindsertorte, tsimmes and zhug. And why? Because the king with the unpronounceable name was about to party down, of course.

Dress up as your favorite character and join us for our very own own

Purim celebration featuring a Megilla reading, a hilarious (so we've heard) Purim shpiel from our Religious School students, singing, dancing, and hamentaschen galore.

Event: Purim Party!
Date: March 7, 2009
Time: 03:00 p.m.

Friday Night Services

Second Friday Family Service

March 13, 2009

It's time for a beit din (a council of judges) to answer the question for once and for all. Who is responsible for the Golden Calf? Are we to blame Aaron, who didn't stop a willful, party-down people or are the people to blame for running roughshod over the High Priest and Second in Command? Along with our usual joyous celebration of Shabbat, we'll practice our Torah study skills by debating this very question. Parents, prepare and present your arguments; the kids will serve as your beit din!

Event: Fourth Friday Night Service
Date: March 13, 2009
Time: 07:00 p.m.

Fourth Friday Adult Service

March 27, 2009

How and why are we making offerings in our modern age? This week, we open Leviticus with Parsha Vayikra. Though this book was written by priests, it's the book Jewish children once learned first -- for a reason. We'll think about that while we celebrate this Shabbat.

Do a little dance: Cha Cha Chocolate Fundraiser was a Great Success

The chocolate was superb, the music was great, and we danced all night, led by the unforgettable D.J. Mike Lamb. In the process, we raised well over $1,000.

Many, many thanks to our new president Robbin Smith and all her helpers for making this fundraiser the coolest way to raise money ever.
